

Devine Coaching

Covenant with Tammy Devine, ICF Certified Coach

WELCOME

"Passionate about health, healing, and wholeness, I seek to accompany others on their journey to living and leading well. Coaching allows me to walk with God's people as they seek to live as whole and holy people." Thank you for choosing me as your coach. I look forward to a fulfilling coaching relationship with you. The following covenant is meant to provide you with necessary information to ensure our success. If you have any questions, please email me at tammy@tammydevine.com.

PURPOSE

This coaching service is done via Google Meet or telephone. This coaching may address specific personal goals, centered living, ministry or life challenges personally or professionally. My purpose as your coach is to assist you in living from your strengths as a whole person so you may live and serve fully.

CONFIDENTIALITY

As your coach, I promise that all information shared with me will be kept strictly confidential. Sometimes information shared by the client may be explicit and will be treated with the utmost respect.

CLIENT FOCUSED

Throughout our coaching relationship, you can count on me to show up powerfully by being fully present, helpful, and straightforward. You understand that the power of the coaching relationship can only be granted by you. Because coaching is client-driven, ultimately you are responsible for creating your own results. We also recognize that the Holy Spirit is present in this coaching relationship which, in the most profound sense, makes this holy work.

PROCEDURES

You may schedule a session online at calendly.com/devinecoaching/coaching-call. Once the date has been confirmed, a Google Meet link will be sent prior to our session. If you experience difficulties with the link, please email me. If we are meeting by phone, please call me at our scheduled time. Please make sure to complete your Coaching Preparation Form at least 24 hours before we meet. You can find the form online at tammydevine.com/coaching-preparation.

AGREEMENT

By signing below, you agree to keep your part of this covenant and to regard our appointment time frames with respect. You agree to submit agreed-upon payment directly after each session.
